Commpete is Proud Principal Sponsor of ACCANect Conference 2021

Sydney, 6 September 2021 – Commpete, Australia’s leading alliance of challenger telecommunications companies, is excited to be principal sponsor of the Australian Communications Consumer Action Network’s (ACCAN) ACCANect conference.

Under this year’s umbrella #DigitalDownload, key stakeholders from the telecommunications industry will discuss emerging challenges related to the connected world and help find solutions to relevant consumer issues with insights from experts representing consumer organisations, regulatory and government bodies, and the communications industry. Michelle Lim, Commpete chairperson, will address “The future of regulation for competition in the new wave of digital over-the-top services” during her session on Wednesday, September 8.

Michelle Lim, Chair of Commpete said:

“We are very proud to be the principal sponsor of this popular and relevant conference and to represent challenger brands amongst industry heavyweights such as the Minister for Communications, representatives from the ACCC and the CEOs of Optus and TPG Telecom. Much like ACCAN’s purpose to work for communications services that are trusted, inclusive, obtainable and available for all, Commpete strives towards bringing value, flexibility and choice for consumers, businesses and the economy.”

Teresa Corbin, CEO of ACCAN commented:

“ACCANect is where key decision makers come together with consumer organisations to discuss emerging consumer issues in the communications sphere. From mis- and disinformation on digital platforms, to the future of NBN regulations, ACCANect tackles the big questions of the day.”

“ACCANect is not possible without the support of generous sponsors such as Commpete, who play an important role in bringing greater choice to Australian communications consumers. We are grateful to have their assistance in bringing the 2021 online conference to our engaged audience across Australia and around the world.”
